

LESSONS LEARNED LIBRARY

SHARING KEY LESSONS FROM EVENTS

The Lessons Learned Library is a repository in the domain of Crisis Management for collecting and sharing lessons from severe incidents, crisis situations, tests or exercises

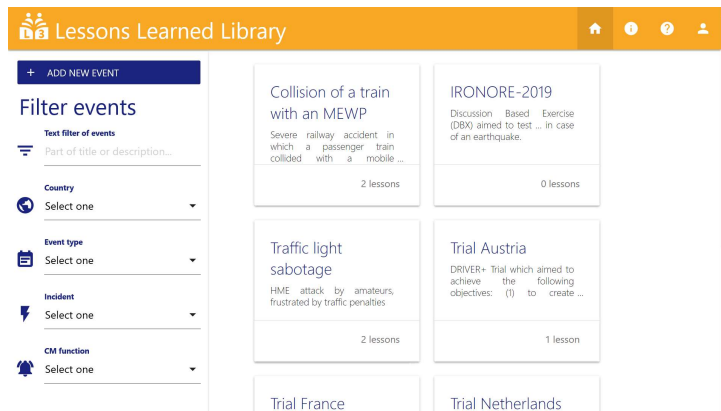

Share your experience: help your colleagues, so they can take advantage of your experiences

Quick and easy: in a short period of time you can edit information and key lessons from an event in a well-structured way

Open to any professional: not locked away in a safe or hidden in some report, but open to any professional interested to learn from others

By enabling to share key lessons across organisations, across sectors, and across countries, the Lessons Learned Library contributes to the improvement of handling crisis situations across Europe
